The United States Olympic Team, led by flag bearer and fencer Mariel Zagunis, marches into the stadium during the Opening Ceremony for the London 2012 Olympic Games.

Hello Micro Dept! I'm writing everyone from inside the Olympic Village where I have been living, eating, & training with all the other athletes. I am living my dream for sure, taking in every experience and savoring every moment! Thanks everyone for being the best department at MSSM, you have all supported and encouraged me so much, and I greatly appreciate it! Be sure to congratulate Matt and thank him extra for me! It was such a rush walking out with Team USA behind our flag during the opening ceremony! In case you missed it, here's a snapshot I'm in the 2nd row, on the left side, head turned, arm waving. (My head is just below someone's USA flag). Be sure to tune into NBC sports network Aug 11th 12-2pm, I'll be racing live, wearing red! Thanks again for all the support I look forward to seeing everyone in Sept, when I am ~~the~~ back to doing science again! ♥ Maria Nichta
